

the Ulster PEOPLES college a DIFFERENT approach...

Race and Ethnicity Course 2nd - 3rd June 2005

Are you concerned about growing evidence of the racist targeting of people perceived to belong to ethnic minority communities in Northern Ireland?

The Ulster People's College, in conjunction with INCORE will run a 2-day course focusing on 'race and ethnicity'. The training will be provided by Barbara McCabe of Ulster People's College and will take place in Derry/Londonderry at The Junction.

Topics include:

- The origins of the notion of 'race'
- Why are there refugees and asylum-seekers and what is an economic migrant?
- What are the issues for 'new-comers' as well as 'host-communities'?

This course is free of charge and accredited with the OCN at Level 2. Please note places are limited.

Contact Shonagh Higgenbotham, INCORE on tel: 028 71 375500 or s.higgenbotham@ulster.ac.uk for application details.